

DEPARTMENT OF URDU, KIDDERPORE COLLEGE

Program Outcome:

The University of Calcutta has designed the curriculum for Urdu Semester 1 to 6 (Honours and General, under the CBCS System) to ensure students acquire a solid foundation in the Urdu language and its linguistic interactions. Through the study of various Urdu poetry and prose genres, under the patronage of diverse institutions and schools, students gain a deep understanding of the positive and negative impacts of various movements and trends on the language. This comprehensive approach empowers students to adapt to various environments. Additionally, a course titled SEC, focused on Journalism and Electronic Media, is included in all semester curricula. This course opens up numerous employment opportunities for students who diligently study and apply themselves. Overall, the University of Calcutta's well-structured curriculum has the potential to provide students with valuable skills and knowledge, leading to promising career prospects.
